STATEMENT OF ISSUES

1. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion in determining that there was no fraud on the court pursuant to 60(d)(3);
2. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion in denying to entertain movants' motion to reconsider as untimely under the court's inherent powers;

3. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion in holding that movants' 60(b)(1) motion was untimely.
4. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion in holding that intervening rights would be prejudiced by granting movants' requested relief.
5. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion by failing to recognize that Judge Gonzales added testimony into the record sua sponte that does not exist in the record.
6. Whether the court erred and abused its discretion by failing to recognize that movants' memorandum in support of their motion presented facts and legal authorities which the court completely failed to address in its June 9, 2009 rejection order and its June 19, 2009 rejection opinion.
